MAURITIUS

Area: 1860 sq km – 720 sq miles
Population: 1.2 million
Capital City: Port Louis

Government: Parliamentary Democracy
Head of State: President Sir Anerood Jugnauth
Prime Minister: Dr. Navinchandran Ramgoolam.

Mauritius is a volcanic island measuring 58km or 36 miles from north to south and 47km or 29miles from east to west - about two-thirds the size of Luxembourg or the US state of Rhode Island and smaller than the county of Mid Glamorgan in Wales.

It lies in the Indian Ocean about 500miles east of Madagascar, 2400miles south-west of India and 135miles north-east of the nearest French island of Réunion.

People: Indo-Mauritian Créole Sino-Mauritian Franco-Mauritian
Languages: English, French, Hindi, Urdu, Bhojpuri Créole
Religions: mainly Hindu Christian and Muslim

Mauritius is an all-year-round destination. The warm season starts from October to March, with a slight risk of cyclones between December and March. The weather cools from April to September.

Designed by the College of Arms in Britain the Mauritian flag is symbolic. Red is for the country's independence, yellow for the bright future, green the fertile land, and blue for the Indian Ocean. The flag was officially adopted January 9, 1968.

No vaccination or visa is required by EU citizens visiting Mauritius.

The unit of currency is the Mauritian Rupee. Major credit cards are accepted, ATM's and banks available all over the island.

Although English is the official language, French is also in use a lot for business. Most of the local people are multi-lingual with the dialect of Créole being the language used informally by Mauritians.

LOCAL TIME - GMT + 3 hours.

BUSINESS HOURS : Banks : 10am-2pm from Monday to Friday.

POST OFFICE : 8.00-11.30am and 12.00-15.30pm Monday-Friday.
